The General Order No. 286 dated the 8th ultimo, is only applicable to Regiments armed with 577 and 656 Rifles.

BENGAL.

(From the Calcutta Gazette, March 29.)

Mr. J. M. Erskine, Officiating Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, North-Western Provinces, availed himself, on the 10th Instant, of the leave of absence granted to him in Notification No. 29, dated the 27th ultmo, making over charge of his office, temporarily, to Mr. L. C. Probyn, the Officiating Civil Pay Master, North-Western Provinces.

The undermentioned Officers, appointed to the Bengal Staff Corps, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, in Government General Orders Nos. 963, of the 23rd October 1861, and 231 of the 28th February 1862, respectively, will rank as Lieutenant, under the operation of paragraph 84 of Government General Order No. 332 of the 1861, with effect from the dates specified opposite to their names :—

The following Officer having applied for admission to the Staff Corps, constituted by the Royal Warrant of the 16th of January 1861, is appointed to the Bengal Staff Corps, and will rank as Lieutenant, under the operation of paragraph 84 of Government General Order No. 332 of 1861, with effect from the 18th February 1861, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India :—

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.

Yesterday morning the Lahore Light Horse marched from the Presidency for Barrackpore, where, as at present arranged, they will be stationed until after the rains.

We hear that there is a probability of the head quarters of H. M. 42nd Light Infantry, for some time sentenced to Ranegunge, escaping this wretched visitation and going also to Barrackpore instead ; and we believe that this arrangement is only awaiting the sanction, by telegraphic message, of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to be carried into execution. House property is steadily going up in value at Barrackpore, and in a short time hence, after the opening of the railway, the prosperity of that station will be independent of military patronage, and of the arrangements of the Commander-in-Chief. Unfortunately there is, we believe, some deficiency in the military regulations of the Barrackpore cantonment, by which house owners are permitted to raise their rents as high as their own avarice, or the necessities of proposing tenants may prompt them to do ; which is not the case in other military cantonments.—Englishman, March 28.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

SIR,—Let the fact be patent to all the Parsees generally, and to every member of the Parsee Law Association in particular that, the pernicious usage of infant betrothments and early marriages has been universally condemned by all right-thinking men. And let it be clearly understood by the latter that this custom will never be allowed by the civilized British Government to have a place in the draft of a code of laws which they have prepared, in any shape save that which is perfectly consistent with common sense and prudence, with humanity, and with the growing enlightenment of the age ; and which I have already hinted at in my former letter on the subject.*

The question now naturally arises, how is the case to be decided as regards those unfortunate persons who have been already got married at an early age ? Can they or can they not get a divorce ?

On the one hand, justice, fair-play, and sympathy proclaim with one voice that such persons ought to get a divorce unconditionally. On the other hand, worldly prudence contends that if every person were to obtain a divorce in that way, there would be nothing but social strifes and contentions as the consequence. I for one should think, Sir, that both sides are right each to a certain extent. The only thing for us now to do is to avoid the extremes and to adopt a middle course.

A proposal was made by an influential member of the Parsee Law Association in one of their late sittings to the effect that, all married persons (Zoroastrians) under the age of twenty-one can get a divorce provided they have not consummated their marriages ; but not otherwise. The proposal though well-meant was absurd. For it is a matter of notoriety that, conformably to the social condition of the Parsees as it now is hardly two such persons could be found as have arrived at the age of twenty-one, and have not known each other as husband and wife.

The course, Sir, which I would take the liberty to suggest as being best suited to the present state of Parsee society, would be this :—All Zoroastrians who have been married under the age of twenty-one can get a divorce, provided they have had no issue whatever up to the time when they ask for such a divorce. This, I repeat, is the only best way to my thinking of solving the difficulty and of remedying the existing evil.

Let me, Sir, now ur any, than the frontier of the Northern Province. Most people think they would meet with little or no resistance from the Chinese, should they come and promise to treat the natives as well as at Ningpo. The officer would probably make a show of resistance, to save their reputation with the Emperor—if they could. Some hold to the opinion that should the Rebels approach, the local rabble would rise, en masse, and plunder, pillage, &c. This is doubtful. You will see from the above, that little is done and little is known in regard to a descent on Fuhchau, which, it is asserted abroad, has been threatened by the Rebel Chief, though there is much talk and considerable fear."

At Peking, by the last accounts, some activity was being manifested in the promotion or degradation of civil and military officers according to their conduct. The Emperor has also decreed that the provinces now distressed by the presence of the Rebels shall be exempt from payment of this year's taxes to the government; this measure is affirmed to proceed from pity for the suffering of the people in the provinces specified. Altogether, there has nothing occurred during the past fortnight that points to a way out of the present unsatisfactory condition into which Chinese affairs have fallen.

From Tien-tsin, we hear that the ice is likely to break up a little earlier than usual this year, the troops and residents had been amusing themselves by skating, sledging, &c. Some amateur Theatricals had also helped to vary the monotony of a Northern winter.

From NEUCHWANG (in Manchuria), we learn that the foreign residents have been in imminent danger from the populace, many signs of hostility having been shown by the latter, amounting almost to violence.

At HANKOW, all is quiet by last advices.

At KIUKIANG (our part at the mouth of the Poyang lake), the imperial troops have lately been threatening and suspicious in their conduct to foreigners; the principal residents have transmitted to Shanghae a statement of their position; for some reason which does not appear, the gunboat originally stationed there has been withdrawn, and the imperial troops, not knowing how much we are befriending them elsewhere, have taken the opportunity of annoying foreigners; beyond this, no harm is likely to ensue.

From the other ports there is no news of importance.

At MANILA, there has been an Earthquake without serious rusults; an account of it will be found in another column. Our correspondent, writing on the 5th instant, says:—"I am afraid we are going to have another earthquake, unless the rain, that has just commenced falling continues to pour down in good earnest. Happily for us, these shocks are generally of short duration. From the record of the last two centuries, it would appear that, every twenty-eight years, a heavy shock of earthquake and a hurricane are experienced at Manila; slight shocks, are annually felt, and I have no doubt that very many pass unperceived.

In HONGKONG, matters are going on much as usual. The Volunteer Corps has commenced drill, and the members muster well both at morning and afternoon parade. The cold weather still continues.

The Times seems to have fallen into error with regard to the Treaty of Peking, as we find in an article on Russian encroachments in the East, received by last mail, a supposition that, "in negotiating the recent treaties, we thought only of China, and forgot Tartary"—to such an extent, that Mr. Bruce, the Times believes, has declared his inability to make application for passports from Peking for an expedition to Yarkand. This, we think, must be a mistake, as we know that, on the conclusion of the Treaty in 1860, Imperial orders were issued from Peking for its publication throughout Manchuria and Mongolia, and that Yarkand was actually specified in the rescript. It is not likely, therefore, that Mr. Bruce can have made any such statement as the Times alludes to.

The news from Japan has reference only to the chronic state of dissatisfaction with their Consuls in which the mercantile community have always existed since the country was opened. The old complaint that the rules for residents are not followed by those who made them, has broken out more virulently than before. There is evidently a lack of consular integrity in the country; by next mail we shall know the grievances in detail.

COMMERCIAL SUMMARY.

THE London mails of 27th January arrived here by the Behar on the 24th inst., but had been anticipated by the Thunder, which left Singapore the night-before the mail-steamer, and reached this on the 10th.

As was the case last Overland, we have very little to report in business matters. The Northern ports in the Gulf of Pet-chee-lee are still shut in by ice, and those in the Yang-taze-kiang are scarcely opened for the season, though a brisk trade is expected when they are. Shanghae trade is stopped by the Rebels, and the only business at Ningpo is in Rice and other articles of food. In the South, importers of manufactures are more disposed to meet the views of the native dealers, but no extensive transactions have yet taken place.

At Tientsin Chefoo, Hankow, &c., we have therefore nothing to report.

SHANGHAE, March 6.—Sales of Imports, 7,500 pieces Grey Shirtings, and a few Whites, 1,000 pieces T-Cloths, and as many Chintzes, with 630 Spotted Shirtings and 200 Brocades, are all that are reported. In Exports, also, we have but little to report: 450 chests Black (Ningchows), and 1,300 half-chests Green (Moyune and Pychow), are the only transactions. Of Silk, 3,500 bales had found buyers. Exchange, 6/1 for Bank, 6/2½ for Credit. Freights £5 a £5. 10 for Tea, £6 a £6. 10 for Silk. Ships loading—for London, Cambalu, Damio, Gabalva, Hadassah, James Paton, Saturnus, and Spray of the Ocean; for New York: Eva, Horatio, and Iona.

FOOCHAU, March 1.—In Imports, little doing. The sales comprise some 1,200 pieces Grey Shirtings, 500 Brocades, and a few hundred pieces of other goods. The transaction in Teas since our last are, 16,000 chests and 11,000 half-chests Congou, 350 chests Flowery Pekoe, 1,000 half-chests Oolong, and 900 boxes Scented. The market is now pretty well cleared of stocks. Freights, to London £5. 10. Ships loading for London, Alaric and Haddaway: for New York, Don Quixote and Jan van Galen.

AMOY, March 10.—800 bales Bombay Cotton, 225 Yarn, 4,400 pieces Grey Shirtings, 1,500 T-Cloths, 4,000 American Drills, 450 Fancy Goods, and 350 pieces Chintz, are the sales reported. In Exports, some purchases of Sugar have taken place.

Canton.—Of Imports, sales of 4,300 bales Cotton, 5,000 pieces Grey Shirtings, 1,500 American Drills, 1,400 piculs Hoop and Bar Iron, 24,000 piculs Rice, and 6,000 piculs Sugar. Of Teas, the settlements are, 15 chops Congou, and 1,000 half-chests Canton-packed, 5,000 boxes Scented Orange Pekoe and 9000 Caper, 7,000 boxes Gunpowder, and 5,500 half-chests 1,500 boxes Young Hyson. Nothing done in Silk. Freights, to London £4. 10. Ships loading, for London, Garonagoue; for Liverpool Corea; for new York, Sea Serpent and N. B. Palmer.

Hongkong.—Sales of Imports very small—200 bales Raw Cotton, 150 Yarn, 3000 pieces Grey Shirtings, 1,500 American Drills, 500 Camlets, 400 Spanish Stripes, 600 Long Ells, are all reported of manufactures. Of Rice, 80,000 piculs have been disposed of. Exchange 4/8½ for Bank, 4/8¾ for Credit. Tonnage getting scarce, and in demand for the Rice ports.

PINANG.

THE Secretary to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have replied to the memorial sent from Pinang requesting that the Contract steam packets may stay here on all occasions during 6 hours of daylight at least. The application has been referred to the Postmaster General, as all such questions rest with the Post Office since the transfer of the mail packet service from the Admiralty to it.—Gazette, March 15.

THE new ship Augustin Grangier belonging to Mr. Grangier, left Bordeaux bound to Singapore with 600 tons of coals for the French Government and 100 tons of sundries. On the 6th February, when in north Lat. 6° East Lon. 94° a thick smoke was observed to issue from the forehatchway, accompanied by a smell of Sulphur. A fruitless search was made to discover the place where the coal was in combustion. It was then resolved to put into Acheen, and some stores were brought on the deck; all the passages from below were hermetically closed and the boats were got ready. From 6 to 9 the winds were changeable but calm. Some cases containing percussion caps and fire-works were thrown overboard. The smoke gradually increased, smoke issuing in a thick volume from below the tarpaulings, and the cabin became uninhabitable. On the 10th February, smoke began to issue from the seams in the forepart of the ship and below the bowsprit. At eleven o'clock in the morning they anchored in the roads of Acheen with the pilot flag, and the national flag flying in distress. At half past noon a dreadful explosion burst the hatchways, and a cloud of gas all in flame, ran over the deck, Captain Cotineau was the only man injured, having his face and hands burnt. The boats were lowered and the more valuable articles placed in them. The schooner "Flora" of Pinang, which had hoisted the British flag, was lying in the harbour and Captain Cotineau and his crew went on board her with their effects. Some time after they went back to the burning ship and assisted by the crew of the "Flora" succeeded in saving sundry portions of the rigging and sails. As soon as night set in many large boats repaired to the ship in order to plunder the floating cargo. From 10 o'clock till midnight, a boat carrying, it was said, an Achinese authority, remained with the ship's boats. The fire continued, and one of the men who attempted to enter the hold, was nearly suffocated.

On the 14th, the flames reached the deck and the fore-part of the ship, and spread to the rigging, masts and sails. At three o'clock in the afternoon the whole was on fire. The ship burned all night, and on the 12th at 6 in the morning a little before sunrise, a bright glow lighted up all the roads, and shortly after the hull sank. It was not possible, to strand her on account of the calm and the land-breeze.

Captain Cotineau, who has thus unfortunately been burned out of his vessel, succeeded in 1855 in rescuing the crew of the British Ship the "British Royal Family" Capt. John Harrison, which also was destroyed by fire in the middle of the Bay of Bengal. On board the British Ship there were 56 Sailors and the Captain's wife and for Captain Cotineau's exertions and kind treatment of the rescued crew on the occasion he received a gold medal from Her Majesty Queen Victoria and the thanks of the Emperor. We understand that the Honorable the Resident Councillor gave Captain Cotineau and his crew every assistance in his power in forwarding the crew of the "Augustin Grangier" to Singapore per steamer "Hooghly."

SINGAPORE.

AN Agent of the Messageries Imperiales is at present here for the purpose of making arrangements for the line of steamers which will commence to run in a few months between Suez and China. It will be seen from our advertising columns that a new English Company is also being formed for the immediate establishment of a line of steamers by the Overland route to carry passengers and cargo at the lowest possible rates. It is said that a sufficient number of shares in this Company have already been taken to enable the Directors to commence operations, and that they are entering into contracts for steamers with all the latest improvements. The Secretary of State for India, it is understood, takes much interest in this new Company and should it make a fair start it will probably receive a share of the official patronage which is now exclusively bestowed on the P. & O. Company. It would be unjust to deny that the latter company has done good service in the public and the state in its time, but it is notorious that the demand for accommodation by the overland route, which it has been the chief instrument in creating, has far outgrown the means for meeting it which the Company choses to supply. The new lines of steamers will remedy this, and if the P. & O. Company suits itself to the altered times, as we have no doubt it will, it may still obtain a fair share of the traffic, which will be greatly increased by the additional accommodation supplied by the various lines. At the same time, should the P. & O. Company suffer somewhat from the competition to which it will be exposed, it cannot expect much sympathy from the public, seeing it has never shown much disposition to give redress for complaints or admit its rules to the general convenience. —Free Press, March 13.

THE thousand shares in the "British and Eastern Steam Navigation Company," allotted to Singapoor, have, we learn, been all taken up and there is still a demand for more. There will be a considerable demand for them from Java, &c. and the Agents should therefore lose no time in procuring authority to issue a good many more. —Free Press, March 20.

CEYLON.

EARL CANNING AT GALLE.—We take the following from yesterday's Examiner:—

A letter from Galle informs us that "Earl Canning, late Governor General of India arrived from Calcutta in H. M.'s Steamer Feroze last night (24th March), he landed immediately and proceeded to the Commandant's House where he took up his quarters, the Queen's house not being yet in readiness to receive so distinguished a guest with his suit. This morning at sunrise a Royal salute was fired, much to the surprise of the inhabitants, and as a steamer was coming in, it was supposed to be the Mail Steamer overdue, with the Prince of Wales as a passenger, but it turned out to be the private Steamer Armenian, one of a line lately established between Bombay and China, by a wealthy native firm, the salute being intended for Lord Canning. At 11 A. M. his Lordship held a Levee, the Military were all in attendance and a select number of the Government Agent's private friends, who had received private information that his Lordship would hold a Levee. It is to be feared his Lordship might feel that the Civil portion of the community were wanting in respect, but they were not so, for as the Government Agent only gave information to his private friends, the attendance was very limited.—Colombo Observer, March 19.

THE General Meeting of the Volunteer Rifle Corps, advertised for this evening, is, we believe, called for the purpose of devising steps for putting the corps on a more efficient footing or dissolving it. Doubtless the meeting will be attended by all who have its real interest at heart.

IN consequence of the approaching departure of the Revd. Narayan Sheshadri, missionary of the Free General Assembly's Institution to the Deccan, his Hindu friends and admirers have proposed to convene a meeting in the General Assembly's Institution this evening at half-past seven. The public are requested to attend.

THE MAHARAJ LIBEL CASE.—The Chief Justice intimated on Saturday last in reply to a query of Mr. Anstey, that the Court would give judgment in the now well-known Libel case of Jadunathjee Maharaj vs. Cursundass Mooljee, in the next week that is, on or about the 14th or 15th instant.

IT is generally rumored that Major Curtis will be the Military Secretary of our new Governor. The rumor is undoubtedly the offspring of a sincere wish, for Major Curtis is deservedly a great favorite in the community; and it may be founded on a knowledge of the fact that he obtained a high place in the estimation of Sir Bartle Frere by his public services in Sind.

MAJOR CURTIS is said to have applied for the office of Deputy Commissioner of Police, rendered vacant by the resignation of Mr. Forjett. The gallant Major certainly possesses every possible qualification for the office, and we should suppose he had only to apply for it in order to obtain it.

AT an evening entertainment recently given by a Parsee gentleman to Dr. Haug, Professor of Sanscrit in the Poona College, and author of a work on the religion of the Parsees, on which occasion some two hundred guests of different creeds were present, the learned Doctor requested a Mobed to go through the ceremonies of his religion; which request, out of deference to the guest and the evening, met with a ready compliance. We are sorry to hear that the feelings of a number of the most respected members of the Parsee community were grievously wounded by the exhibition. We must say that religious ceremonies of whatever character are not the proper thing for public exhibition on such an occasion.

A CANDIDATE FOR THE ACTING RESIDENT ENGINEERSHIP OF THE WATER WORKS.—A Mr. T. W. Daniels, a Plumber by trade, lately sent in an application to the Municipal Commissioners, for the vacant appointment of Acting Resident Engineer, which post has recently become vacant, through the resignation of Mr. Rowlands. In recording this application, Major Curtis wrote the following minute: "I hardly see the use of recording the application except as a specimen of caligraphy. It is quite natural that a Plumber's mouth should water at such a tempting "plum" as the Chief Engineership.

THE Governor General in Council has laid down the following Rule for determining the date from which an Officer succeeding in charge of the duties of a Civil office is entitled to the salary:—

Arrival on a Sunday entitles the relieving Officer to the salary of his appointment for that day; but on other days it is necessary, in order to enable the relieving Officer to draw the current day's allowance, that he should take charge of the duties of the office before noon.

MR. C. H. LUSHINGTON, Secretary to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, is allowed one month's leave of absence from the 1st instant, preparatory to resigning Her Majesty's Civil Service.

The Hon'ble E. Drummond, Auditor-General and Accountant-General to the Government of India is to officiate as Secretary to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, until further orders.

Mr. R. P. Harrison, Deputy Auditor and Accountant-General of Madras is to officiate as Auditor-General and Accountant-General to the Government of India, and to be also a Government Director of the Bank of Bengal and a Member of the Calcutta Mint Committee.

THE following order is taken from the Calcutta Gazette:—

"His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council having decided that the amount assigned to Officers of the Staff Corps as 'pay' should be regarded as a lump sum, not divisible into the portions of which Pay and Indian Allowances were formerly composed, and being desirous that this decision should not injuriously affect the interests of the Officers of that Corps by bringing their total receipts under the operation of the Income Tax, is pleased to direct that, from the date of this Order, a portion of the pay of each Officer of the Staff Corps, according to his rank as noted in the margin, exclusively of any special exemptions which may have already been authorized, shall be exempt from taxation.

"This Order is applicable to the three Presidencies."

WE have received a copy of the "Brief Memoir of the late Miss Arabella Felicia Boswell", which appeared originally in the Bombay Guardian, and now appears as a neat brochure. It is well worthy of being thus separately published, and placed within the reach of all, but, especially of the youthful portion of the female sex. Miss Boswell was the daughter of Mr. A. B. Boswell, a much esteemed member of this community, who has long been most usefully engaged in the education of the young. No expense had been spared in giving Miss Boswell the best educational advantages to be enjoyed in England, of which she had made the greatest improvement. She was a highly accomplished young lady, as regards both the solid and ornamental parts of education; and she had subjected her moral feelings to a most judicious and successful discipline. Her highest adorning, however, was that which a genuine piety imparted to her whole character. During a comparatively long period in which she was confined to a bed of languishing, she exemplified the reality and value of this piety. The "Brief Memoir" is written with much feeling, and concludes with an extract from an impressive sermon preached by the Rev. Mr. Colvin, on the occasion of her death.

WE learn from the Ceylon papers that Mr. Ernest Watmough, has been sentenced to two years imprisonment for cheating a merchant in Ceylon out of £200 by means of a forged draft. The Colombo Observer thus comments on the leniency of the sentence:—

"We cannot at all follow the arguments on which Mr. Justice Sterling founded his lenient sentence on Watmough. Cheating a Merchant out of £200 by means of a forged Draft, does not surely so greatly differ from the case of one Native cheating another out of, perhaps, £7-10, by means of a false Deed. If the crime has been rare it would be well if steps were taken to prevent the increase of precedents. The faculty of imitation is strong in human beings, and the great fact remains that if Mr. Watmough is to work two years (being supported meanwhile,) he secured his £200 previously. The offence pointed to transportation, and surely it would have been better for Watmough to have been sent out of the country where his crime was committed. The idea of his re-establishing either his character or position here, seems visionary. Mr. Justice Sterling is a kind hearted man, and he may have been actuated, to some extent, by the feeling so generally entertained that Mr. Justice Temple's sentence on Ross; or embezzlement (seven years' transportation) was too severe."

WE accept the congratulations of the Englishman, as expressed in the following paragraph, with the greatest pleasure; and we assure our cotemporary that we "rightly appreciate" our "great good fortune":—

"We very sincerely congratulate our friends of Bombay on the news of the day, that they are to have Sir Bartle Frere as their Governor. We look upon that exchange for the threatened infliction upon them of Sir J. P. Grant, as a piece of great good fortune, and trust they will rightly appreciate it. For once in India we shall see the right man in the right place. So far as Bombay and Sir Bartle Frere are concerned, the appointment is the happiest that could have been made. But in precisely the same proportion it is a source of regret to Calcutta, and of loss to the Supreme Council, of the Empire. We lose one of the hardest working men and clearest heads in India; qualities heightened in their usefulness by the rectitude of purpose and amiability of character which distinguished Sir Bartle Frere. The loss to Lord Elgin's Council, will be in some respects irreparable, but we hope that may be counterbalanced by the influence which we are certain will be exercised by the new Governor in bringing in to accord the interests and objects of the two Presidencies; hitherto often treated on both sides as if the so called sister provinces were, at best, but badly assorted sisters-in-law. We hope much in this respect from Sir Bartle Frere's experience of Bengal, and Bengal's knowledge of, and high respect for him. Of one thing we are sure, that he will not be permitted to go from amongst us as too many of our leading, or aspiring, statemen have done, in a sullen silence or under a hot debate as to his deserts. All parties will do honor to Sir Bartle Frere on his departure, whenever that may be, and we hope that our substitute for the Mansion House—the Town Hall—will show the Veceroy, that all our warmth of feeling has not been absorbed in the heat of the climate; and that though we regret his loss, we can heartily and unselfishly bid a good many God speed in his new and more independent career. We shall hope to see Lord Elgin honoring with his presence a brilliant farewell banquet to the new Governor of Bombay."

WE give below the introductory portion of the Report of the American Mission among the Mahrattas, for 1861. We are very happy to find that the appeal of the Mission for pecuniary aid was so liberally responded to. Let the devoted laborers not only thank God, but take courage. We shall notice the Report hereafter.

"The past year has been one of peculiar anxiety to the Mission on account of the civil war prevailing in America. For a time business there was nearly suspended, numerous failures occurred, the minds of men were absorbed in political matters, and in consequence of this it became difficult to raise funds for Missionary purposes. We had repeated letters from the Secretaries of our Society urging upon us the necessity of great caution in our expenditures, but about the 1st of July we received a letter from the Treasurer, from which we learned that we could expect no further remittance from him for about three months. We found afterwards that he wrote this letter under a misapprehension as to the amount on hand in the Mission Treasury. The fact was, that our Treasury was nearly empty when that letter reached us. With a current expenditure of 3,000 Rs. a month, and no funds to meet it, we were brought into great straits. On consulting with esteemed friends of the Mission as to what we should do in the circumstances, we were advised to make an appeal to the public, stating our necessities, and how much would be wanted to carry on our operations without curtailment. We follow this advice, and have reason for great gratitude to God in view of the result. Our friends at Ahmednuggur and at other stations aided us by their influence and active exertions in our behalf. Several responses were made to our appeal from every quarter. From all parts of this Presidency donations were received, and some even from beyond its limits. Friends of the Mission in England and Scotland, when they heard of our wants, sent us valuable contributions though unsolicited. Edinburgh raised a subscription and sent us £50. The list of the names of the donors and of the places from which the donations were received, given in the Appendix, will show how wide was the sympathy felt for our Mission in its emergency. The names of several Natives not Christians will be seen in this list; the amount received from persons of this class was about Rs. 400. One Hindoo Merchant in Bombay sent in a donation of Rs. 100, and remarked in his note accompanying it, that though he was not a believer in Christianity, yet he admired and appreciated the disinterested zeal and exertions of Christian missionaries in doing good to the people of India, and he believed that American Mission had done and was still doing much for the moral and social elevation of his countrymen, that therefore he deemed it his duty to contribute according to his ability to the support of the Mission in their present embarrassed circumstances. The aid received from this and other native gentlemen was exceedingly gratifying to us, as it showed that there are some persons in the native community who appreciate our motives in coming to this country, and while they do not acknowledge Christianity to be true, they feel that the ministers of Christ and of course the religion of Christ should not be left to the results of the female sex, Miss Boswell was the daughter of Mr. A. great length upon the fact that the Commissioners were quite justified in serving the notice upon the heirs of Luxmun Govindjee who were found upon the record to be the devisees, and they were right in the assumption as to the ownership of the property. As to the question of possession, it was in evidence that the house remained unoccupied for upwards of eleven years, and no one can be found on the premises to give a clue to the owner on possessor. It seemed to have been left for many years in a ruinous condition, report upon report was made to the Commissioners of its discreditable condition, the Commissioners did their best to discover the owner to call upon him to make the repairs, but failing in finding same one to put it right, they took the only course left them, and pulled do own portion of it as was thought dangerous to the public safety. On the second day after the removal of the tiles, plaintiff according to his own evidence received information from his mallee that the house was being pulled down, and he made no complaint of it then, but on the contrary sent his maistry, who assisted the Commissioners men in removing the tiles and ruins carefully.

The following witnesses were examined for the defence.

Mr. John Pritchard, Chief Inspector in the Surveyor's Department of the Commissioners, said he knew the house on the Naigaum road. His attention was called to the house on the 16th of May 1861. It was in a delapidated state; the walls were more of less broken and cracked, and the lower portion of the wall in the garden had fallen down. The plastering of the walls of the upper story on the side of the road appeared to be cracked. The house was then unoccupied. Witness considered the house in the state in which it was, to be dangerous to the passengers on the road. He next saw the house on the 27th June. On that occasion he saw a notice posted on the state door; it was a notice in the usual form given by the Commissioners to the owner or occupiers. He saw the notice again on the 29th June. In obedience to an order from his superior officer, authorising witness to pull down the [illegible] portion of the plaintiff's house, he proceeded [illegible] spot on the 28th June; he first removed the [illegible] a portion of the roof and terrace which was in a ruinous condition; on the 29th the removed the other portion of the roof, and broke down the walls of the upper story, removing the bricks carefully to the lower floor. On the 29th plaintiff's own Maistry assisted witness in removing the wood-work; the Maistry employed a carpenter and a coolly for so doing. The Maistry told witness that he had been sent by his master to remove the ruinous portions of the house. In executing the order witness did nothing more than what was necessary for the public safety. There was no body in the garden representing the [illegible] who was there told witness that he belonged to Luxumon Govindjee. Witness saw the plastering of the walls of the upper road, but he saw nothing in the [illegible] to cause those cracks. The roof in [illegible] sunk, and the lower portion of the [illegible] of the perpendicular.

Sonathjee, an Overseer of the Mahim [illegible], said on the 16th May he saw Richard on his rounds. They saw [illegible]aum road; it was in a very dan- directed the Sub-inspector to ascertain [illegible]wner. The Sub-inspector made a [illegible] and the latter made a report to [illegible] terrace and walls were in a ruinous [illegible]tion of the lower walls had fallen [illegible] witness generally corroborated the statement of the preceeding witness.)

Jugganath Vittoba, Sub-inspector in the surveyor's department said, that in consequence of enquiries made by him as to the whereabouts of the owner of the house at Naigaum, he went with a notice to the house of Luxumon Govindjee. The heirs of Luxumon Govindjee refused to receive the notice, and referred witness to Tatteebye and Puckeer Balcrustna. Witness went two or three times with the notice in search of Puckeer but could not find him; on one occasion an old woman told witness that Puckeer had gone to Tanna, and on another occasion that he had gone to Mahim. Not having been able to find Puckeer at home, witness had the notice posted on the door at Naigaum. Witness made a report to his superior officer on the ruinous condition of the house. In the front wall of the house there was a slit, and a portion of the rear appeared to be sunk. Witness subsequently saw plaintiff and told him that as he would not receive service of the notice, he (witness) had it posted on the door; to this plaintiff replied that witness had done well. The house had remained uninhabited for the last ten years.

Mullare Crustnajee, a sweeping peon, posted up the notice on the door of the house at Naigaum, by direction of the last witness.

Kanajee Jairam, Police Havildar, was on duty at Naigaum last year. He remembered a house on the Naigaum road having been pulled down by the orders of the Commissioners. The house was in a ruinous condition; the front wall was cracked, and the rear portion of the house seemed to be sunk a little. It was dangerous to the passengers along the road. Witness's attention was called to the state of the house by the European Constable who told him to make enquiries after the owner. Witness was told by some people that the house belonged to Luxumon Govindjee. He went to the residency of Luxumon Govindjee and he was told by the inmates that they would send for the woman to whom the bungalow belonged and inform her accordingly.

John Miranda, a Muccadam in the Repairs' Department, saw the bungalow in question on the 16th May, while going on his rounds in company with Mr. Pritchard. A portion of the bungalow had fallen, and the front portion was in danger of falling on the public road. On the 27th and 28th June he proceeded there and removed the ruinous portion of the bungalow with the assistance of coolies. The Maistry sent by plaintiff told Mr. Pritchard that he had come to pull down the bungalow. The Maistry gave directions to the coolies what portions to break.

Mr. J. F. Hutchinson, one of the Municipal Commissioners, stated that he was one of the defendants in the present action. The funds are raised by Municipal taxes. The Commissioners have no control over the books of the Collector of Land Revenue, and it is not their duty to inspect or consult his books. It was no part of his duty to inspect the land revenue, neither did it form any part of his duty to find out what transfers of property took place from time to time. The entry in the books are never altered unless applied for by the parties and the original deed produced, Goverment occasionally on reference being made to them supply the Commissioners with the opinion of their law officer. The commission has not been sued for damages in a case when a house was pulled down in accordance with the act, but damages were not recovered. Had the party recovered, the damages would have been paid out of the Municipal fund, or otherwise out of the public money. He never dreamt that when he accepted the office of Municipal Commissioner that in cases of damages being recovered he would have to pay the amount out of his private purse. He knew of the plaintiff bearing the name Fauqeer Balcrustna only a few days prior to the present action. He always knew the plaintiff by the name of Narayan Bapojee more particularly as he had on one occasion contracted with this department which contract the plaintiff subsequently failed to perform. His department has been frequently called upon to pull down dangerous tenements. The side walls of the plaintiff's house are at present standing, they are composed of rubble and mud, and are not dangerous to parties passing on the highway.

Cross-examined by Mr. Westropp.—Neither himself or his brother Commissioners were ever defended in any court in cases where actions were instituted by the Government law officers. He was aware that the present action brought on by Mr. Bickersteth was not in his capacity as the government solicitor but as the private firm of Messrs Bickersteth and Cleveland. He considered an experience as an engineer or surveyor before he was elected a Municipal Commissioner. He never made any reference to the books of the Collector of Land Revenue to ascertain in whose name a property stood, but he believed that there is an order of Government to the effect that the Collector of Land Revenue should not allow any one to have access to that official's books. The question of reference to the Land Revenue Officer's books he understood to apply to the Commissioners and not to their subordinates. If any information was required the Commissioners would have to apply to the Collector of Land Revenue officially which would be the proper course.

Christna Balloo, Police sepoy No. 14 said.—He remembered going to a house in June last in Naigaum road for the purpose of pulling down a portion of it. On the first day when he went there with Mr. Pritchard the house was not pulled down in consequence of the begarees having refused to enter the dwelling it being in such a dilapidated state. On the third day that he went there a Maistry came there from the owner of the house at about 10 or 11 o'clock in the day, and after having conversed with Mr. Pritchard he took part with the begarees in the demolishment of the premises as well as supporting some portions from falling. The cross beam that was supported by a prop was not cut although some of the rafters were cut away.

Mr. Henry Aaronezamined.—Formerly a Police Constable at present Master of the Sailors' Home. He was the Constable in charge of the Naigaum Division from September to December 1860. He saw a portion of the house pulled down but could not say by whose order. He remembered having inspected the plaintiff's house in company with Police Jemadar Bomanjee which he found in a tumbling down state so much so, that he was afraid to trust himself within the inner bungalow. He had no experience as a surveyor or engineer, but he did not enter the interior part of the house as he was afraid to do so, it being in such a delapidated state, and beyond repair as he thought Nusserwanjee Furdonjee, clerk to Mr. Assessor Dossabhoy Framjee produced the assessment books for 1847 in which book under No. 39 in Naigaum road he found the name of Luxumon Govindjee, which name was changed for another in 1848.

Mr. Henry George Wilcox examined.—He concurred with Mr. Hutchinson in the course pursued in the present case as being the regular course of business practiced in the Commissioners' Office. He was the Surveyor to the Commissioners but had not half a sufficient staff under him, an immense deal of business is done by the Commissioners under the 37th Section of the Act, so much so that during last year 504 notices were issued with regard to delapidated houses, and in 104 cases the houses were removed. He did not consider the house in such a totally ruinous state as to be beyond repair, for had two or three hundred rupees been expended by the owner at the time he was served with a notice it would have secured the house for the next ten or a dozen years.

Mr. Westropp in reply contended that it was the duty of the Commissioners, if they intended pulling down any body's house, to give a due notice to the owner, and to do so they must make a diligent search to discover the owner. The question here was, had they taken proper means to give plaintiff a legal notice? The learned counsel submitted that they had not done so, and that it was a gross neglect on their part, for which they were liable to the owner for compensation, they having had the means of finding out the owner's name. He said sincerely that what was done in this case by the Commissioners was in conformity with the usual practice of their office and that practice was loose, and nothing can be more loose. He dwelt strongly upon the fact that people's houses are not to be pulled down without a reasonable attempt being made by the Commissioners to find out the owner to give him notice, and for failing in this duty there was no better place than this Court to teach them what they have not learned to perform. He maintained that the state of the house was not such as to warrant its abandonment to the use of the crowbar and the pickaxe; a notice would have been sufficient to warn the owner to put it in repairs which were but slight.

Judgment reserved.

COURT OF SMALL CAUSES.

(BEFORE MANOCKJEE CURSETJEE, ESQ.)

Huckma Usha and others, vs. Mahomedbhoy Cassumbhoy.

HE IS AN INFANT.—This case came on for hearing again having been adjourned from this day week.

Dr. Reid appeared for the plantiffs.

Mr. Nesserwanjee for the defendant.

Dr. Reid said that he had been instructed to appear in this case, and from what he had been informed it had been postponed from Saturday last for the purpose of giving time to counsel to look into the authorities on Mahomedan law. He thought there could be no doubt, according to Macnaughten on Mahomedan law, that a Mahomedan boy was considered to be a minor until he was sixteen years of age. In Chapter VIII section 1 of Macnaughten's Mahomedan law it is laid down.—All persons, whether male or female are considered minors until after the expiration of their sixteenth year, unless symptoms of puberty appear at an earlier period. Sir W. Macnaughten was looked upon as a higher authority than any Pundit or Moolvie, and therefore it was not to be supposed that the Court would doubt his authority. In section 2, Bengal Regulations XXVI of 1793.—It is laid down that sixteen years is the time of Hindu majority according to several parallel texts, but they vary as to whether the limit be the first or the last day of that year. The defendant belonged to the Koja caste, which were made up partly of Hindoos and partly of Mahomedans, but it had the same bearing on the case whether it was viewed as one or the other.

Mr. Nesserwanjee for the defendant.—Here is a book, Macpherson's law of contracts.

HIS HONOR.—That has reference only to English law.

Mr. Nesserwanjee then quoted the Hedaya the Venaia and Dr. Reid on family right p. 92, and contended that according to the Bengal Regulations eighteen years was the age of majority. That was also according to Mahomedan law. To establish the puberty of a Mahomedan, the age of nineteen years was required.

Dr. Reid.—That is found in a note to Mr. Morley's digest as before cited by me, but it does not apply to this side of India. The other authorities cited by Mr. Nesserwanjee have no reference to minority but to puberty. If the defendant has attained the age of sixteen, which I believe is admitted, there could be no doubt that he had attained his majority.

HIS HONOR.—If you can shew me any decision in any Court either here or in Calcutta, then it will decide the case.

Dr. Reid.—I cannot find any case. It is an established fact and I submit that no case is necessary.

HIS HONOR.—Therefore evidence will be absolutely necessary to establish it.

Goolam Boosu Mohideen called and examined by Mr. Nesserwanjee.—I am a beggar.

HIS HONOR.—We don't want any beggars here.

Witness continued.—I have passed my examination in Mahomedan law. I produce the original Hedaya [witness then read from the book, but no translation was rendered by the interpreter into English.] A Mahomedan is considered a minor until he has attained the age of puberty.

After the witness had finished reading from the book, the interpreter was about to mark it, so as to put it in as an exhibit.

Dr. Reid.—Perhaps the book may be a valuable one and it might deteriorate it to place any marks on it.

HIS HONOR.—No, don't mark the book.

Dr. Reid.—I am told that the defendant has kept two mistresses for the last two years, if that could be proved, it would, I think, decide the question of puberty.

HIS HONOR (to the witness.) If a boy passes a promissory note, at what age is he liable, according to your notions?

Witness.—It depends if he knew what he was about.

Dr. Reid.—I think the defendant looks like a very moral youth.

HIS HONOR.—Your evidence is very unsatisfactory, witness.

Witness continued in answer to Dr. Reid.—In matters of law, if my opinion is required, reference is made to me. I never held any appointment, I do not get any salary from the defendant's father. I am employed and paid by the whole caste, to perform their marriages and to deliver lectures. I am their High Priest. I consider that he has attained an age of puberty, I never heard that he kept two mistresses.

HIS HONOR.—Dr. Reid, have you anything more to say.

Dr. Reid.—The book quoted by Mr. Nusserwanjee is no authority as to minority, it only refers, as I said before, to puberty. Upon either a boy or girl attaining their tenth year, they are considered to be at their majority. Therefore I submit that a Mahomedan boy having arrived at sixteen years, he is of age. The Bengal authorities do not extend to Bombay.

HIS HONOR.—If you cannot shew me anything in the Bombay Regulations, I must decide on the case by the evidence before me. Therefore, independent of the authorities cited for the defence, I am bound to be guided by the evidence of great importance, I will if you like, Dr. Reid, send it up to the Supreme Court, for confirmation.

Dr. Reid.—I think that it would be a very proper case to send up to the Supreme Court.

HIS HONOR.—You should have made that application before I had given judgment.

Dr. Reid.—I think you Honor has the power to send it up to the Supreme Court yet, notwithstanding your having given your judgment. It was done so lately by his honor the first judge.

HIS HONOR.—You can apply to the full Court for a new trial, if you like.

Virdict for defendant; costs certified.

Toola Goona and another, vs., Mahomedbhoy Cassumbhoy.

The plaintiff in person.

Mr. Nesserwanjee for the defendant.

This was another action against the same defendant, on a promissory note for Rs. 104. The plaintiffs were Marwarrees.

Mr. Nesserwanjee put in the plea of infancy.

HIS HONOR.—The verdict is for the defendant with costs.

INDIAN.

BENGAL.

DR. PATON.—By letters from the North West we learn that Dr. Paton, the Director General of Post Offices, has passed Delhi en route to the Punjab, where he intends to inspect several postal stations, and to establish some village post offices if necessary.—Hurkaru, March 28.

ASSISTANT PAYMASTER AT THE PRESIDENCY.—We hear that a recommendation has been made to government, by the Chief of the Military Finance Department, to appoint a covenanted military officer as Assistant Paymaster at the Presidency, as has been done at Meerut and some other places.—Id.

IN the disposal of the vacant governship of Bombay, the Secretary of State seems to have acted upon the principal so much in favour with philanthropists, of promoting the happiness of the greatest possible number. It would have been as uninteresting as marriage without courtship, to make as a direct offer and have it accepted off hand, whereas, as matters have been managed, Sir John Peter Grant has had the pleasure of anticipating, Lord Dufferin the honor of refusing, and Sir Bartle Frere the profit of accepting, the post. Poor Bombay, basely jilted in her political affections, widowed before she is wived, will no doubt join in the address of condolence which our Baboos are bound to present to the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, and the Indian Empire. As for the Landholders' Association, we beg them to bear their triumph meekly, and not talk of Nil-Durpana, Seton-Karre, and the manifest power of the interloping element.—Id.

THE Peninsular and Oriental Company have received notice, that when their contract expires, which will be the case at the end of twelve months, it will not be renewed. Tenders for a weekly line of steamers to Bombay will shortly be advertised for by the Home government and as the authorities at the head of the India Board, the Admiralty, and the Post Office, are of one accord on the subject, we suppose the matter must be considered as un fait accompli. We are glad to hear of the decision arrived at, for the sake both of the public and the Company.—Id.

WE believe negotiations are pending between the government and the Burmah Steam Navigation Company, for the sale, by the former, of the two screw steam-ships Australian and Sydney. Should this prove to be the case, the Burmah Company, who are extending their operations to Kurrachee and most of the ports included in the Bombay Presidency will be enabled not only to carry the mails, but do most of the transport work that may be required in the way of shifting troops from port to port, and one large item of expense in the Marine Department will be done away with. With the number of inland steam companies now starting, (no less than ten new vessels are being built for this trade) we think it would be better for the government to sell all their inland fleet, and trust to private enterprise. In a few months there will be some thirty steam vessels in this port employed in inland navigation alone.—Id. March 29.

The multifarious nature of their stock has been divided into separate departments under qualified heads, which will greatly facilitate the general convenience of their Customers.

THE PHARMACEUTICAL AND DISPENSING BRANCH has been fitted expressly for the purpose and is strictly under the immediate personal superintendence of qualified dispensing chemists from the best houses in London, and the drugs and chemicals are selected by Mr. Treacher himself in Europe, and where advisable the manufacture of chemicals and medicinal preparations is conducted on the premises to ensure perfect purity.

THE PHOTOGRAPHIC BRANCH has been greatly extended and a convenient Room has been fitted up which embraces every requisite for both amateur and professional Photographers, from the best manufacturers of Photographic chemicals, apparatus and working material.

THE MANUFACTURING AND WHOLESALE DEPARTMENTS are on a very large scale, and Messrs. Treacher & Co. are now able to carry out orders to an unlimited extent and with the greatest punctuality.

MESSRS. TREACHER & Co. invite their constituents on Malabar Hill and the neighbourhood to call, also to send their prescriptions and orders generally to the Medical Hall, Byculla, where in future their general stock will be kept. Its position is central and the premises so commodious, and greater care and attention will be ensured than has hitherto been possible in the bustling and confined premises in the Fort.

MESSRS. TREACHER & Co. gladly avail themselves of this opportunity to acknowledge and thank the Public for the general support given to the Firm during the past thirty years and trust to continue to enjoy their confidence and patronage. Successful experience has fully proved the advantage of supplying ONLY guaranteed articles, and they confidently assert that it is their aim in every detail connected with the business to ensure the satisfaction of their constituents.

The Book-keeping and correspondence will for a time be carried on in the Fort where out-station orders should be addressed.

The hours of business are from 8 A. M. to 7 P. M. daily (Sunday excepted). Prescriptions prepared and Medicines supplied at both establishments at any hour.
